

Florian Engelhardt is the founder and conductor of the «Orchestre trinational du Haut-Rhin». In 2021 he debuted as opera conductor with Donizetti`s «Don Pasquale» at the State Opera in Stara Zagora (Bulgaria), followed by Verdi`s «La Traviata» in 2022 and Leoncavallo`s «Pagliacci» in 2024. Florian Engelhardt sang as a bass-soloist in Tonhalle Zürich and KKL Luzern. As a member of several famous vocal ensembles, he sang under the baton of Hermann Max, Thomas Hengelbrock, Daniel Barenboim, Valery Gergiev, Sir Simon Rattle and Claudio Abbado.

www.florianengelhardt.de

www.orchestre-trinational.com